NOSHOK's Three Year Warranty applies to our 900/910/915 Series Industrial RTDs.

NOSHOK guarantees all products to be free from defects in material and workmanship, to remain within catalogued accuracy specifications, and to operate within the catalogued performance specifications.

These products must be operated within the catalogued environmental and application parameters.

Determination of failure will be made by NOSHOK, Inc.'s equipment and personnel or a certified test facility specializing in this type of evaluation.
